

INDIA'S HERITAGE AND CULTURE SHOW – 14.8.14

On the eve of India's 68th Independence Day, Kendriya Vidyalaya, Kathmandu, wore a festive look, celebrating India's glorious culture and heritage through a school level Exhibition. Patriotic feeling soar to new heights on 14th of August as students enthusiastically displayed models, charts, artifacts, dresses, food and glimpses of development, the country has achieved since independence.

Class I and II bore the look of a play school with all sorts of toys and play equipments displayed so imaginatively. Class III had all dresses on display while class IV welcomed everyone with a warm aroma of Indian cuisine from all regions and it was indeed a treat to the palate. Class V offered a visual treat with huge models of places of tourist interests of the country.

Class VI welcomed the guests in a festive mood as the students literally converted their room to a conglomeration of all festivals celebrated across the country. Class VII was in fact a cross section of the lofty nation as it managed to aesthetically present the language and religion of a country whose very back bone is 'Unity in Diversity'. Class VIII depicted the vibrant colours of India that are reflected in its Classical and Folk music, dance, art, craft and paintings.

Class IX showcased the stride, the young nation has taken in the field of science and technology, highlighting the areas of telecommunication, defense and space technology. Class X took the visitors down the memory lane to the days of India's struggle for independence from foreign aggression and students donned the attires of the architects of Indian independence.

Class XI science celebrated 100 years of Indian cinema and plotted the graph of growth and development of film industry over the years. Class XI Commerce sketched the road map of India from 1947 to 2014, its development & growth in all sectors. The room was replete with development models in all spheres.

Class XII science and Commerce organized an Edu-Fair, to provide an insight into the various avenues- colleges, admission procedure and other formalities associated with pursuing higher education after completing +2.

Excitement and enthusiasm was palpable in every single student and teacher as they moved through each portal, appreciating the magnificent endeavour and enterprising efforts that culminated in a never-to-forget, enriching experience of self-learning through exploration and exhibition. Pride and elation knew no bounds in every single mind as this Exhibition provided them an opportunity to be associated with a country so rich in culture and heritage, proudly marching ahead in the path of growth and development.

The Principal of the Vidyalaya, Mrs Radha Mahalakshmi appreciated the efforts of the students and teachers and informed that the Exhibition would be open for students and parents.
